SEMA 2013

By: Daryled Bristol

I will attempt to convey my impression of the recent SEMA Las Vegas show experience.

OK, I was a bit late getting my registration, but thanks to the expertise of Mr. Kagen it happened. I was registered. It took some doing, but due to our travel schedule and my total ineptness I was a bit late getting reservations, so we opted for rooms at Jean, Nevada. It is about 20 miles south of town, but the rooms were clean and cheap. Our first day was Tuesday, and we had to stop at the Summit Inn for Breakfast on our way. We arrived and registered a little after noon and then drove into town to get our feet wet, so to speak. We parked at Circus Circus, as my Google Earth led me to believe it would be a short walk to the Convention Center. A bit more stuff than I expected plus finding registration and picking up my credentials. So when we were about one hour into the show we hadn't even got to the first display. On we went; doors were opened for us, bags for goodies were everywhere, as well as candy samples just to get your attention (as if the eye popping products and scantily clad young women weren't enough to grab your attention).

Holiday Party

By: Neal Mills

A big thanks to everyone who attended SDMC's Holiday Party. It was a great evening to visit with friends and toast the holiday season and upcoming New Year. A special thanks to Christy Pluciennik who planned the party and did all the hard work to make it happen. The food was delicious, and everyone looked festive.

After dinner, Santa Steve Waid led us in singing Happy Birthday to all our December celebrants. He invited the bartender to participate, but she declined saying, "I don't sing very well." During Steve's rendition she started laughing. I don't think she thought Steve was giving it his best effort. He was, and it was a classic.

Santa Steve was then joined by his able assistants, the Elfinor (Elinor Shack) and the Red Neck Elf

In a nut shell here is what was on display (and occasionally for sale): Racing & Performance parts; Mobile Electronics & Technology products; Hot Rod Alley products; Collision Repair & Refinish products; Powersports & Utility Vehicles; Global Tire Expo products; Wheels & Accessories; Restoration Marketplace products; Trucks, SUV's & Off-Road parts; Restyling & Car Care accessories; Tools & Equipment; and Business Services.

This is a candy store for the Gear Head. Plug in LEDs to replace those incandescent bulbs; polish and wax to put Mark Booth into a perpetual drool state.

We are talking about no less than 10 acres of car displays. Stuff you've seen and stuff you have only dreamed about. I didn't bring a camera as the literature mentioned something about professional photographers only, big mistake. I did snap a shot or two with my cell phone, but it can't begin to do it justice. It would take at least two weeks to see everything, and after about 12 hours spread over 2 1/2 days we were burned out; our feet will take weeks recovering, and our ears have yet to recover from the mega watt sound systems and engine exhaust of the outdoor exhibits.

If you ever have the opportunity to do this show book early, and go with good walking shoes and a great camera.

Many thanks to Allen Kagen for the chance to play in the greatest car show I have ever seen. ■

2014 Membership Renewal

2014 MEMBERSHIP: It's time to renew your SDMC membership for 2014. The membership renewal form is available on the SDMC website [go to "For Members" > "Renewal Application"], and Chris and Linda will have blank forms at the monthly meetings. Dues is still $35 for the year.

for a total of 287 members.

(Greg Lee), who did an excellent job in handling the gift exchange and providing humor that kept us laughing throughout the evening. It was interesting to see what got stolen and what didn't. Some couldn't hold onto a gift and others couldn't get rid of theirs. Thank you again to everyone who participated.

SDMC will continue to celebrate the holidays with the Scrooge Run on December 14th. We will meet at Phil's BBQ in San Marcos to decorate cars and have dinner, then drive through neighborhoods with Christmas lights and decorations. The run will end at the San Marcos Historical Society's Conners Hall with the stage play A Christmas Carol. Join us for dinner, for the drive, for the play, or hopefully for all three.

More information can be found on the club's Events Schedule or by contacting Dawn Coats, k9sndj@yahoo.com

We will conclude the holiday season, and start the New Year, with the traditional New Year's Day Rose Run. Rosi Romero is heading the run again this year and will lead us through many of the popular roads in the South Bay. The event will conclude with lunch. Keep an eye on the Events Calendar for more info.

Grace and I wish you and your family a very Merry Christmas and a wonderful New Year.

Hope to see you all at the monthly meeting on the 19th. ■

San Marcos Holiday Parade Recap

By: Steve Waid

Sunday turned out to be a glorious day in every way. The weather was spectacular, and we had 12 enthusiastic Miata drivers with passengers in 8 of them. Only Dawn Coates drove any dignitaries, if you count 3 young teen girls as dignitaries. Somehow Dawn squeezed the three in her car. I'm sure it helped that the girls were young and still svelte.

Everyone else decorated their cars, and with all of the garland the Miatas just sparkled in the sun. As we drove the parade route in our unique fashion, the smiles and squeals of delight from the sides came from kids and adults alike. They love seeing us have fun. We introduced a few new SDMC members to this parade, and afterwards virtually everyone went to Philly Franks for a late lunch. All in all it was a great day.

Laurie and I are looking forward to being able to decorate our car for night display on December 14th for the Scrooge Run. We have some new strings of lights to try out. Oh boy! ■

Our Mission

The purpose of the club is to promote the enjoyment of, and enthusiasm for, one of the world's most exciting sports cars—the Mazda Miata.

Owning and driving a Miata is one of life's great pleasures, and adding the company and camaraderie of like-minded enthusiasts only enhances the experience. Won't you join the fun as we enjoy the beauty of San Diego County from the seat of a very special little roadster?
Let's have fun driving our Miatas!
